

ROUNDBOUT--Supplement.

Educational.

The Franklin County Teacher's Association will meet at Peak's Mill, on the 2d Saturday in July, at Switzer the 4th Saturday in July, and at the Polsgrove school-house on the 1st Saturday in August.

We hope the friends of Common Schools, and especially the teachers and trustees, of the different neighborhoods will turn out and take a lively interest in these meetings. If you want better schools, show it by encouraging the members of this Association in their efforts. Our motto is "Better Schools and Better Teachers."

A Card.

Editor Roundabout:

I desire to call the attention of the Cemetery Company to the fact that calves are allowed to run at large in the Cemetery and are damaging the graves and the flowers planted by loving hands over the last resting place of their dead. Having occasion a few days since to visit my lot, I was surprised and grieved to find tracks on nearly every grave in it and many of the flowers that had been placed there at considerable expense were trodden down or broken off. Feeling confident that when the attention of the Board of Directors is called to this matter it will be promptly remedied, I have taken this method of bringing it their notice.

LOT OWNER.

Harp.

Rain plentiful.

Corn and tobacco look well.

Wheat harvest is over and most farmers think there will be a good yield.

Mr. George Polsgrove and wife, of Monterey, were visiting relatives in this section.

The Governor Moore went to Monterey last week to assist Messrs. Polsgrove & Moore in the cultivation of their corn crop. They plowed him down by noon the first day. The Governor turned his course to Bald Knob for a few days' visit, after which he will continue to run his coffee parcher.

Mr. David Daulton, the contractor on the F. C. & S. R. Turnpike, will have one quarter of said pike completed in a short time, as Mr. Daulton is a first-class worker and don't mind getting his clothes dirty.

Our Sunday-school is progressing finely and is under the management of Dr. J. C. Wilson and Prof. Tracy, two earnest workers in Christian faith. Mr. Tracy will have his organ the next Sunday and will furnish us with some charming music and will also give us a lecture on Sunday-school.

Antioch.

Mrs. Martha Walston has begun building her new stone house. It will be larger and better than the one burned several weeks ago.

Miss Nora Glone, who has been visiting in Winchester, has returned home.

Miss Mary Lee Glone, who has been attending school at Danville, is at home for the summer vacation. Welcome home, Miss Lee.

Miss Emma Rossel, a bright little girl, daughter of James Rossel, was severely bitten by a dog of Mr. F. E. Lewis' a few days ago. We are glad to learn she is doing well at this writing.

Messrs. James Rossel and Henry Spalding represent Antioch at this term of the Court.

Why don't the trustees go to work and build a new school-house. The old one is an eyesore and disgrace to the whole neighborhood. Tear it down at once.

"Straws show the way the wind blows." We hear some of the friends of John W. Payne are talking of calling on him to run for Sheriff. Nothing like being in time, boys.

They had a lively time of it at the picnic last Saturday; all seemed to enjoy themselves.

Bloomington.

Born.—To Mr. Brosie Quarles and wife, a son.

Died.—At the residence of Mr. Burnie Johnson, June the 15th, Miss Alice

Hawkins, aged about fifty years. The funeral services took place Wednesday from the residence of Capt. Steele, conducted by Rev. Polk South, after which the remains were interred in the family burying ground.

Rev. John Cannon preached to a large crowd Sunday eve, notwithstanding the rain. All expressed themselves well pleased and hope that he will send another appointment soon.

Mr. A. G. Hodges, of Peak's Mill, will be over next Sunday to lecture to our Sunday-school. Mr. Hodges is an interesting speaker, whom we will be glad to see among us.

Misses Mary Wallace and Kate Duval spent Monday with Mrs. Job Smith.

Among the visitors at our Sunday-school last Sunday were Misses Joyce and Annie McDaniel and Mr. O'Nan, of Flat Creek, and Messrs. Harry Sullivan, Willie Dailey and Gordon Triplett, of Peak's Mill.

The rain is spoiling the wheat and giving the weeds a good chance to grow in the cornfields, much to the annoyance of some of our farmers.

LEO.

Bald Knob.

Wheat crop is better than it has been for years.

Mr. Lem. Wentworth, of this place, is a Republican candidate for County School Superintendent.

Dr. Reynolds, of Hatton, spent last Saturday night with Dr. Robinson.

Tobacco men who have been so sanguine of a big crop this fall, find their prospects in a saturnine state at the present time.

Prayer-meeting at Lebanon Church every Saturday night and Sunday-school every Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Come and join in the good work.

Zeke Yocum likes the photograph of the Bloomington correspondent, and wants to have it enlarged.

Prof. Tracy has moved his orchestra from this place to Harp, and as a result the sacred songs and prayers to God are hushed in silence at the Union Sunday-school here.

The protracted meeting at Lebanon Church, conducted by Revs. Burton and Head closed on last Friday night with 27 additions. 23 were immersed Friday. May they live consistent members and be instrumental in bringing many more to the fold of God.

Bro. Head left Saturday to conduct a protracted meeting at Mt. Carmel Church.

Bridgeport.

Very seasonable.

Corn prospect good.

Vegetables in abundance.

Early apples rather scarce.

Wheat stacking in full blast.

Clover hay about all harvested.

It depends more on who than what.

Prof. J. B. Lea paid us a visit recently.

Miss Sallie Miller has recovered from her recent indisposition.

Congregations small at the various churches in this section during the last two Sundays.

We are glad to note the fact that Miss Bettie Wilson is still improving.

Miss Kate Jenkins has returned home from a visit to Lawrenceburg. Somebody—we mean everybody—glad.

Miss Ida Crockett is visiting friends at New Castle, Henry county.

Mr. R. H. Hawkins, of Lexington, paid a visit to friends in this section last week. His health seems to be very much improved. Glad to report.

Mrs. Able Jenkins, of Graefenburg, Shelby county, has been very sick for a week or two.

Mrs. Tude Mason, of Hawesville, formerly of this place, has returned home from a visit to relatives in this and Mercer county—her first for twenty years. She was accompanied by Miss Mattie Robb, of the same place.

From present prospects Thanksgiving and Christmas turkeys will be rather scarce.

Billie Jackson's horse, Gunner, died a short time since from the effects of injuries sustained by rolling in a ditch while wallowing.

Mrs. Sallie Crockett has returned home from a visit to relatives in Mercer county.

Regular services at Evergreen Church this evening at two o'clock and tomorrow at eleven.

The Messrs. Wade Bros. & Towles have finished their pike contract in Anderson county, and will commence the construction of the remaining mile and three quarters of the Bridgeport and Benson pike next Monday.

Mrs. Thos. Freeman, of Duckers Station, was in the village last Wednesday.

Bob Storts has purchased a new thrasher. He means business.

Born.—July 1st, 1886, to Mr. W. G. Roberts and wife, a daughter. Also the same date to Mr. Andrew Foster and wife, a son. Still there's more to follow.

Mrs. Mollie Armstrong has been in Louisville this week.

Forks of Elkhorn.

Harvest is about over.

Blackberries now, and what a jammy time we'll have.

Born.—On June 14th, to the wife of Mr. Calvin Greenup, a son: Logan Edward.

Miss Ada McEwan, of Frankfort, is visiting Miss Sallie Triplett, near Stedmanville.

Bro. L. H. Salin will preach at Mt. Pleasant to-morrow evening at 7:30 o'clock. Come.

The boys don't seem to talk much about swimming this week, as they have heretofore.

Misses Lucy and Emma Stedman paid our village a short visit one evening last week.

Mrs. Sarah Featherston has been quite sick, but we are glad to learn that she is better.

Messrs. John Newman, James Hockersmith and W. T. Featherston are on the sick list this week.

Mrs. G. Thompson, of Stedmanville, has been visiting friends and relatives in Woodford county this week.

Miss Mary Morgan and Mrs. Fannie Allen, of Stedmanville, were up this week, visiting Mrs. Eliza and Mrs. South Trimble.

Mr. Richard Wilkerson and family, of Union county, arrived here last Tuesday evening, and will remain a short while visiting relatives.

Messrs. Newman and Hockersmith have 10 acres of tobacco that will average 15 leaves and will do to cut this month. Who can beat that?

Mr. Bert Emmel and a gentleman friend from Lexington came down last week on a fishing expedition, and stopped with Mr. and Mrs. John Ready.

Our friend PARVENU, of Peak's Mill, thinks it strange that butter and potatoes are now used in certain localities for engagement presents. If he understood the circumstances connected with it he would not be surprised. But he thinks he knows something about it. There is one thing we know about it: That you have in your community a certain young man (who handles a Penn well) that is short a new tin bucket and a pound of butter, and we know of another young man who don't reside in your community, but visits it occasionally (with as much pomp as General Lee ever did in leading the grand army of the South) and that he is short a peck of potatoes. Whether or not those presents will amount to anything we can't say, but the future may develop wonders.

Look here, uncle Zeke, you will have to skip from that Stone Kitchen. Woodlake has started with shot-guns, and Harry is in pursuit with his 17 dogs, and they say they will tree you this time, sure. You had better flee to the mountains of Sandrifle and change clothes with that bad boy; but do Knott carry there long, or the Durham Bull of Woodlake (we mean the father of the double-headed calf) may overtake and gore you. Our advice is for you to move. You have but one friend in Woodlake, and he is the retired reporter who is resting on his pension from the press, so you know your chances are slim. Say what you please, but never, no never speak about quality corner. Good-bye. I weep over your dilapidated condition. My love to aunt Zeke and the little Zekes.

P. S.—Sorry you have the itch, send and get one of Stedman's back scratchers.
